Detroit Resurgent

Monique Watson, Worker, General Motors Volt Plant and Member, UAW Local 22, 2012

Leonard O’Leary, Fisherman, Cobh, County Cork, Ireland, 2007

Two exhibits featuring photographic portraits by Gilles Perrin in collaboration with Nicole Ewenczyk

September 8, 2013 – January 12, 2014

an extraordinary document of our world opening reception
Join MSU President Lou Anna K. Simon and the Michigan State University Museum
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18 @ 5:00/Endash7:00 PM

Detroit Resurgent is an exhibition program revealing the strength of human creativity in evolving Detroit . . . Portraits of Detroiter who represent a growing movement for a vibrant, resilient city provide a counter narrative to a Detroit in ruins . . . Capturing human energy, complexity, and combined efforts that will forge a shared future . . . Drawing on historic strengths, combined with dynamic new elements.

An Extraordinary Document of Our World is a selection of worker portraits made around the world in a time of change throughout the past 25 years.