

You are invited

ANNUAL FUNDRAISER Featuring a Taste of India
Saturday, October 28, 2017 from 5 to 7:30 pm

Friends of the Heritage of India: MSU Museum Endowment request your presence at the MSU Museum Celebration of the Festival of Lights. There will be dance, music, food, a silent auction, and a short presentation titled, "Illuminating Diwali: History, Text and Tradition" by Dr. Amruta Natu and Prof. Vaishampayan from the Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute.

SUGGESTED MINIMUM DONATION OF $50

Your generous gift to the Heritage of India MSU Museum Endowment offers a variety of programs across Michigan to support research and education about Indian and Indian American heritage. The endowment is committed to museum objectives of:

- education and transmission of cultural heritage
- collection, research, preservation and interpretation
- youth and community engagement
- cross-cultural education by partnering with the Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute (Pune, India)

Your generous gift to this endowment is very much appreciated.

Gifts can be sent to:
University Advancement
Spartan Way, 535 Chestnut Road Room 300
East Lansing, MI 48824

Please make checks to "MSU Museum," with "MSU Heritage of India Programs Endowment" on the memo line.

WHERE SCIENCE AND CULTURE MEET

museum.msu.edu

409 West Circle Drive
East Lansing, MI 48824

RSVP by Saturday, October 21 to Jilda Keck at:
jilda@msu.edu or call (517) 884-6895

PARKING NOTE: Limited visitor parking outside the MSU Museum building; metered spaces in Ramp 6, just across West Circle Drive at E. Grand River Ave. and Charles St.